Canadian Cowboy Confederacy's slogan best expresses my philosophy 'Aimin' to have fun'.

CCC sets the time porthole back to the 1860's. The Golden Victorian era was filled with astonishing adventurers harnessing up and moving west with basics survival skills to enter the harsh Badlands. The rifle, revolver and shotgun were the true equalizers that settled the wild frontier.

Victoria Secret and I created an Old West theme party and invited friends & family all "costumed out" to celebrate her surprise 40th birthday. The surprise was on the guests however as it turned into our wedding! Horses, line dancers and a 26 piece band set the stage for fun and even a Globe & Mail story!

Call it reenactment or a poor man's Star Trek II holodeck, it's exciting to draw period correct Colts from hand crafted leather holsters and pump some custom loads down range. Peppering those stylized steel targets sure does make them sing, making sweet music for all like-minded cowboy action shooters.

Join the excitement. Travel the CCC circuit. Share the vision. Aimin' to have fun...
